

Deep in Our Hearts: Nine White Women in the Freedom Movement by Joan C. Browning

book

Deep in Our Hearts is an eloquent and powerful book that takes us into the lives of nine young women who came of age in the 1960s while committing themselves to the struggle for civil rights. The book is a collection of oral histories that provide a unique perspective on the movement. The women's experiences are both personal and political, and they offer a glimpse into the lives of those who were often overlooked in the history of the movement. The book is a must-read for anyone interested in the civil rights movement and the role of women in it.
